The scene of the hold up last night was in a dark locality and Boardman could get only a meager description of the robber.

WILLIAM FRIEDE DIES FROM BEATING

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—With out having regained consciousness long enough to tell the police a complete story of the attack made on him, William Friede the proprietor of a clothing store of 188 Market street died today from the effects of a brutal beating inflicted on him in his store last Friday afternoon. Friede's skull was fractured by a blunt instrument wielded by two unknown men. After striking down Friede and leaving him for dead in the rear of his store the assassins rifled the cash drawer and took his watch. Then they hurriedly took their departure without leaving the slightest clue. Eventually Friede was removed to Mount Zion Hospital where an operation was performed in the hope of saving his life. The operation had the effect of restoring Friede to temporary consciousness last Tuesday. He also had a lucid moment on Monday. Advantage was taken of Friede's conscious moments to question him closely but the only information that was elicited from him was that he had been struck down by two men. Yesterday it was believed that Friede had a fighting chance for recovery. But early this morning he took a turn for the worse and his life then gradually ebbed until the end.

CHINESE WEDS GIRL AGAIN

Chin Hong Jin Hits Upon Novel Plan to Permit His Wife to Return From China

To enable him and his wife to return from China where they will visit for the first time in their lives, Chin Hong Jin and his wife were married today by Justice of the Peace Geary.

Two newspaper men who were passing the home of the Chinese at 961 Clay street were called in to witness the ceremony and Judge Geary pronounced the celestial husband and wife.

The case is an unusual one in that both bride and groom are natives of San Francisco and neither have seen the land of their fathers and the bride was born on Dupont street across the bay. She came to San Francisco in 1891.

Quinn Sobel was called to the altar by the justice of the peace. Chin Hong Jin is an intelligent Chinese and educated in the public schools of San Francisco.

My wife does not understand English, because she was raised according to the Chinese custom and Chin after the ceremony. It is our belief that the women should be kept at home to do the housework and consequently she was never sent to school. Recently I decided to go to China and take my parents to the land of their birth. I found that in order to do so I must marry my wife according to the American laws in order to bring her back with me.

We were married five years ago and have a child 4 years old. For fifteen years I was the cook at Gobeys in San Francisco but I lost my job when the earth quaked. Since then I have been cooking for a family in East Oakland. The only object of this marriage is that my wife may return to Oakland with me.

ONE DRINK FIXED HIM

Michael F. Gunning, Supposed Victim of Knock Out Drops, Recovers

Supposed to have been the victim of thugs who gave him a dose of chloral a powerful sleeping potion and after he had become unconscious robbed him of his watch and chain. Michael F. Gunning, a young man who resides in San Francisco was found last night in a doorway of a hotel on Seventh street and taken to the Receiving hospital.

Gunning did not regain consciousness until this morning when he was taken to the police station and questioned by the detectives as to how he became unconscious.

At the time Gunning was found James Duffy was taken into custody as a suspect. Duffy was found leaning over Gunning's prostrate form. The suspect asserts his innocence and declares he was assisting Gunning who he says was in a drunken condition to a room in the hotel.

Gunning told the detectives this morning that he went into a saloon at Seventh and Washington streets yesterday afternoon and took one drink. He believes that knock out drops were placed in his glass by thugs while he was not looking. After leaving the saloon he knew nothing until he woke up this morning in the Receiving hospital. He told of a watch and chain being gone and he believes that the robbers stole the timepiece after he lost consciousness.

Policeman Caldwell was told of Gunning's condition and he went to the place where the man's body was lying and placed Duffy under arrest.

DIDN'T SPATTER HIM WITH CAKE DOUGH

shells of wood teaspoons or knives at him. I further deny that I washed the baby in a pan I used for cooking.

Mr. Clausen has made it very lively for me at one home during our married life. One Sunday morning Mr. Clausen struck our baby with a knife leaving a mark on the little one's forehead. Toward the end of our married life he mortgaged our home which was a nice one and took the money and squandered every cent of it on the races leaving me living in one furnished room in poverty. When I would ask him for money he would say: "Well if you don't like it you can go to your mother. She can keep you. When I wanted to move into our own home which we had furniture enough of our own to furnish he absolutely refused to provide me with a proper place to live. In the two years that I have been away from him I have earned the living for my baby and myself."

COMPELLED TO WORK

Mr. Clausen says in the Tribune article that I was a waitress. I desire to say herewith that I never was compelled to do this kind of work in my life only after I married Mr. Clausen. Recently I have been compelled to work as a waitress for support. He has not sent me the cents toward the support of the baby during the past two years that I have lived with my mother. He is earning from six to eight dollars a day as a bricklayer.

I have not been in the habit of running around and keeping company with other men. During the two years that I have been separated from my husband I have only gone out with one gentleman. He is an estimable fellow and has taken me to several places of amusement. In fact he takes me every place that I go and has acted the part of a gentleman and protector.

I am done with Mr. Clausen completely. The future looks bright to me. I don't desire however to have these false charges go before the public placing me in a wrong light. Mr. Clausen can go his way and I will go mine. He preferred his mother to his wife and baby now he can stay with them and that's the truth.

JEWS IN SOLEMN SERVICES IN TEMPLES

Three Local Organizations Appropriately Celebrate the Jewish New Year.

The Jews of this city are celebrating Rosh Hoshanah the new year day of the Jewish calendar in four meeting places. At Pythian Hall corner of Twelfth and Franklin streets the Buss street congregation formerly of Russ and Folsom streets San Francisco held services under Rev. Dr. Reynolds of Sacramento.

Beth Jacob congregation is divided part is in the synagogue at Fourth and Harrison streets under Rev. Dr. Davis the rest in Germania Hall where services are conducted by Rev. Dr. Heller rabbi of Beth Jacob congregation.

The devotional services began at 8 o'clock this morning continuing until 1 o'clock today. They will be resumed again at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The first part of the services consisting of chants and readings were conducted in Hebrew the English ritual being begun at 11 and continuing until 1 o'clock.

In the synagogue at Twelfth and Castro streets Rev. Dr. Friedlander carried out the ritual and preached to the First Hebrew congregation. The music rendered by the choir was exceptionally good. Most of the services following the Hebrew ritual consisted of chants and hymns.

THE SERMON

The subject of Dr. Friedlander's sermon this morning was Retrospection.

He said in part: "The theme of our lesson today is the three elements of self. This is the day of retrospection. This day is marked as one in which man may pause a time from his labors and look back at the distance he has covered and the hardships he has experienced and the advance that he has made. From this day man views the duties he has performed the energy he has applied the work he has wrought the investments he has made and the returns he has received in the year."

But you might ask me the wisdom of fixing a day like this or the necessity of going over a year like this. Wherefore this solemn ritual these heart-strained prayers these soul stirring melodies?

If our life was simple your duties plain the depth of human nature easily sounded then there would be no need. MAN IS COMPLEX.

But man is a complex being and Judah knows it. Our duties and their obstacles are so involved our knees are so weak and our standpoint so shifty that the Lord has need of such a day. Therefore a day of retrospection is necessary. We must have a day in which to comprehend a deeper meaning of life. Life is complex, complex. The elementary part of life is the body the physical organization, with all its susceptibilities all the inner changes and actions a day brings forth pain energy joy grief hardship and peace. Are we to confine the day of retrospection to those things that touch only the physical? Are we to consider only those things that during the year have concerned only gratification or disappointment. Are we to economize only for the physical well being? Because we enjoy the full of the bodily things we are to feel satisfied with that? Is that all that goes to life and towards our duty to the human race and to civilization?

Suppose we and our ambitions our efforts our hopes blighted. Are we to feel satisfied with the past year?

If so we are putting life on a plane with those things that make it depend on pain or pleasure.

Then would life have no other purpose than the physical well being of man. Do our aims and ambitions reach no farther than the material no farther than the beasts of the field? Our own nature rejects this. The soul cries out that man is man for a higher destiny.

Would you consider history civilization progress the fullest development of humanity? The greatest comfort all mankind possesses is the inheritance of those martyrs who never had many of the world's blessings.

We find in us what religion calls the soul. It is our impulses our aspirations our passion for the good the true for honesty and virtue the highest things that burn in us the thing that stirs humanity to a higher civilization. We must in our retrospection and retrospection look for the full share of life and of joy in the soul.

Judaism is not a religion of asceticism. It does not deny the ambition for comfort or for wealth and all that they bring. Judaism recognizes the growth and progress of knowledge and realizes the great power agitation has in the past does now and will continue to exercise in the general progress of humanity.

RATS KILL WOMAN AND DRIVE OFF DAUGHTER

ELIZABETH N. J. Sept. 20.—Mrs. Elizabeth Van Hart sixty years old a paralytic was bitten to death by rats at her home in this city early this morning.

She was absolutely helpless and was unable to call for help although her daughter in law Mrs. Mabel Van Hart slept in an adjoining apartment.

The rats it is thought, attacked Mrs. Van Hart while she was asleep and severing an artery the old woman bled to death before help arrived. Awakened by the loud squealing of the rats in the adjoining room Mrs. Van Hart, the old woman's daughter in law entered the room.

She says it was swarming with the animals. They attacked her as she entered and alarmed she fled from the house. Passersby returned to the room with her and beat off the rats.

According to the undertaker one of the woman's feet was horribly mutilated and the other leg and one eye had also been attacked. PENNSYLVANIANS FIGHT FOR TWO-CENT FARE

HARRISBURG Sept. 20.—The Pennsylvania State board of trade will keep up its fight for a flat 2-cent rate on the steam railroads of Pennsylvania, regardless of the reduction in fare and other concessions made by the Pennsylvania and other roads.

This was decided upon at a meeting here today of the Executive Committee at which ex Mayor Vance C. McCormick, of Harrisburg president of the board presided.

The report of S. Marshall Williams of Pittsburgh secretary of the board showed that 121 of the 137 candidates for the Legislature in Pennsylvania have given a written pledge to vote for the 2-cent rate if elected.

A bill is being prepared by counsel for the board and will be submitted at a general meeting to be held at Harrisburg October 3.

The board then will also consider a bill giving to trolley companies the right to carry freight, and such other legislation as may be suggested. The organization has now a membership of seventy-five local boards of trade and other commercial and business bodies and is constantly growing.

It is proposed to have lawyers familiar with the railroad questions to speak at the next meeting.

BONAPARTE DEFINES THE WORD GENTLEMAN

ANNAPOLIS Sept. 20.—What is a gentleman? Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte propounded the question and answered it for the eighty-five midshipmen to whom he presented diplomas today. He told them that first of all theirs was the profession of a gentleman.

The word is grossly abused the secretary said. In common usage it means sometimes much and sometimes little and often less than nothing. As used in the laws and regulations governing our navy its essential meaning is that you and your brother officers have duties beyond the duties of others that you have obligations which do not rest on all members of this community that of you are required a measure of self control a readiness for self sacrifice, a sensitiveness in honor which I might be neither reasonable to expect nor charitable to exact of all our fellow-citizens.

BONAPARTE DEFINES THE WORD GENTLEMAN

ANNAPOLIS Sept. 20.—What is a gentleman? Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte propounded the question and answered it for the eighty-five midshipmen to whom he presented diplomas today. He told them that first of all theirs was the profession of a gentleman.

The word is grossly abused the secretary said. In common usage it means sometimes much and sometimes little and often less than nothing. As used in the laws and regulations governing our navy its essential meaning is that you and your brother officers have duties beyond the duties of others that you have obligations which do not rest on all members of this community that of you are required a measure of self control a readiness for self sacrifice, a sensitiveness in honor which I might be neither reasonable to expect nor charitable to exact of all our fellow-citizens.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 11

Some Points About an Important Measure That Will Come Before the People

The proposed amendment to the constitution designated as Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 11 adjusting the salaries of the justices of the Supreme Court and district Court of Appeal is to be submitted at the election in November next. That it is just reasonable and economical and should be adopted a consideration of the circumstances will show.

The Legislature of 1905 enacted a law purporting to fix the salaries of the justices of the Supreme Court at $8000 each, and of the justices of the district Courts of Appeal at $7000.

The constitution however, provides that the salaries of the justices shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which they are elected. The consequence is that this statute cannot apply to any of the present incumbents of the respective offices. It does not go into practical operation, nor affect the salary of any of the justices until next January and even then it will apply only to those justices who have been elected for full terms at the next November election.

Justices Henshaw and Lorigan are the only justices of the Supreme Court whose terms expire with the present year. Their successors are to be elected in November and take office on the first Monday of next January, and will then receive the increased salary of $8000 a year. The terms which Justices McFarland and Sloss are now serving do not expire until January 1911 and those of Chief Justice Beatty and of Justices Angellotti and Shaw do not expire until January 1915. During all of these terms these justices or their successors can receive no more than the salary of $6000 as fixed by the law of 1872 while the two associates will be receiving the $8000 salary provided by the act of 1905.

The terms of the nine justices of the district Court of Appeal began anew in January next and from that time forward these nine justices will be in receipt of the increased salary.

By the present constitutional provision the salaries of the district court justices are to be the same as those of the Supreme Court justices and it is generally conceded that the provision of the act of 1905 giving them $7000 only is inoperative and this may result in giving them also the

Salaries Under Law	First Year	Second Year
1 Supreme Justice at $8000	$10,000	$10,000
2 Supreme Justices at $8000	$20,000	$20,000
3 Appellate Justices at $8000	$24,000	$24,000
	$115,000	$115,000
4 Supreme Justices at $6000	$24,000	$24,000
5 Supreme Justices at $6000	$30,000	$30,000
6 Appellate Justices at $6000	$36,000	$36,000
	$90,000	$90,000
7 Supreme Justices at $6000	$36,000	$36,000
8 Appellate Justices at $6000	$48,000	$48,000
	$84,000	$84,000

$8000 a year the same as the Supreme Court justices.

If matters are left in this condition we shall have a curious and anomalous discrepancy in the compensation of justices. Chief Justice Beatty, Judges McFarland, Angellotti, Shaw and the justice elected to complete the unexpired term of the late Justice Van Dyke now filled by Justice Sloss will each be serving for a salary of $6000 performing the same duties and an equal share of the work, with their two newly elected associates, who will be paid $8000. This will manifestly be somewhat embarrassing as well as unreasonable and unjust.

In addition to this, the justices of the several district Courts of Appeal will have the increased salary of $8000. The Supreme Court is the highest court of the State and has jurisdiction throughout its borders and supervisory authority over the district Courts of Appeal. Yet those of the justices above named, some of whom, at least, by long and efficient service have achieved fame and eminence as jurists, are thus forced to the humiliating position of serving for less compensation than is given to the justices of the district courts, which are of lower grade and limited jurisdiction. Every one will at once recognize the propriety of the suggestion that Chief Justice Beatty should certainly receive as much salary as any of his colleagues or any justice of the district Court of Appeal.

The proposed constitutional amendment was designed to remedy this unreasonable discrimination. It provides a salary of $8000 a year for the Supreme Court justices and $7000 for district justices to appeal immediately to all the justices.

There is no other remedy. The salary of a justice cannot be changed by statute after he is elected. If the next Legislature should repeal the law increasing the salary, that would not affect the newly elected full term justices of either court and they would continue to receive the increase during the whole of such terms while their associates would be compelled to accept the lower rate.

The amendment accomplished the purpose by operating on the constitution itself and it thus eliminates all uncertainty of construction and lack of uniformity arising from the statute taking effect at different times upon the respective justices.

The proposed amendment will not make the aggregate amount of salaries to be paid larger than will be without the amendment except in the trifling sum of $1000 per year for the first four years after which it will result in a saving amounting, after eight years to $9000 per annum. This is shown by the following tables:

Salaries Under Proposed Amendment	First Year	Second Year
1 Supreme Justice at $8000	$8,000	$8,000
2 Supreme Justices at $8000	$16,000	$16,000
3 Appellate Justices at $7000	$21,000	$21,000
	$115,000	$115,000
4 Supreme Justices at $6000	$24,000	$24,000
5 Supreme Justices at $6000	$30,000	$30,000
6 Appellate Justices at $6000	$36,000	$36,000
	$90,000	$90,000
7 Supreme Justices at $6000	$36,000	$36,000
8 Appellate Justices at $6000	$48,000	$48,000
	$84,000	$84,000

It will thus be seen that the adoption of the amendment will, so far as the salaries of justices of the Supreme Court and justices of the district Court of Appeal are concerned, not entail additional expense upon the taxpayers to that already created by the act of the Legislature and will as already shown result in a more equitable and decent distribution of the aggregate amount already provided for.

First Entertainment in the Greek Theater Attracts Thousands of People From Oakland and Other Bay Cities.

BERKELEY, Sept. 20.—Several thousand people many of whom came from Oakland and Alameda and across the bay attended the first Chamber Concert of the fall series in the Greek Theater this afternoon. There was a peculiar charm in the mingled strains of violin, viola and violoncello there under the unique acoustic conditions of the Greek Theater. Any music so enhanced by the natural beauty of that setting. The recital began with the American Quartet (in F op 48) by Dvorak in four movements. Allegro non troppo, Lento, Molto vivace and Vivace ma non troppo. Then came variations from the Kaiser Quartet (in F op 77) by Joseph Haydn. The program closed with a quartet in B flat (op 18 No. 6) by Beethoven in the following movements: Allegro con brio, Adagio ma non troppo, Scherzo allegro, La malinconia adagio, Allegretto quasi allegro. Many musicians have esteemed chamber music the highest form of the art inasmuch as perfection of detail can here be combined with the united efforts of various personalities. That this new musical undertaking of the University of California will meet with hearty response there can be no doubt.

President Roosevelt has succeeded in placing the yoke of an American protectorate on Cuba while solemnly affirming the principle of the island's independence. He thus escapes the accusation of imperialism."

BID IS VOID SAYS COURT

Noted Case Settled by Judge Harris, Who Decides in Favor of Defendant.

Judge Harris today decided an unusual suit that if of especial interest owing to the prominence of the defendants who are the executors of the will of the late Julia Moss. Judge Harris decided in favor of the executors, William Wilkinson and E. C. Harrison.

When Julia Moss died she left twelve acres of land that are known as the Moss tract at Moss avenue and Broadway. Before her death she is alleged to have leased this property to H. A. Williams and gave him an option to it at the price of the highest bidder during the time of the lease. When she died Wilkinson and Harrison called for bids and Worthington Ames bid $50,000. Before the confirmation of the sale Williams offered that price and demanded a deed according to the agreement he had had with Julia Moss. The offer was refused and Williams brought suit Judge Harris decided today that Williams' option was void and opened the entire property in probate. Bids as high as $50,000 have been made for the property and it is expected that that amount will be raised when the case comes up again in the Superior Court Monday morning.

SCORES EASTERN MAN WHO CRITICISED RUGBY

BERKELEY, Sept. 20.—Who is this eastern sport McCormack who tried to make a speech on something he knew nothing about asks the editor of the Daily Californian the student paper in an editorial apropos of the Rugby eastern football coach who addressed the blazers at the Intercollegiate Rugby game held on the campus yesterday afternoon. This business of eastern men coming to the coast and handing out their opinions in a self-satisfying air is getting somewhat tiresome. In some way the west has got it away over the east. Anybody who doubts this should attend the University of California and find out.

ROBBED HER HOME.

A burglar entered the home of Mrs. Owen Reilly at 820 Thirty-first street yesterday and after ransacking the house broke open a trunk and stole $25 which had been placed there by Mrs. Reilly. Mrs. Reilly has no clue as to the thief as the house was entered while its owner was away. The police have been notified of the theft.

BOOKKEEPER IS ACCUSED OF THEFT

ALBERT NENNO IS IN JAIL FOR ALLEGED EMBEZZLEMENT

Claimed That He Has Stolen Over One Thousand Dollars

For the alleged embezzling of the funds of the firm for which he was bookkeeper Albert Nanno, a well known young man of this city and a member of the family of Dr. G. P. Nanno who resides at 764 Eighth street occupies a cell at the city prison awaiting the filing of a felony charge against him.

It is claimed that young Nanno embezzled over a thousand dollars from Sheldon and Smith hay grain and oat dealers at Second and Market streets. The members of the firm claim that while examining the accounts about two weeks ago a shortage was noted. An investigation was made and it was believed that Nanno had embezzled from his employers.

The charge against Nanno has not been filed as yet, but it is believed that it will be sworn to this afternoon. He is being held on the detainer "No. 1" as asserted that Nanno was in need of funds and that he took his firm's cash whenever it would not be noted for some time. The young man stoutly asserts his innocence and declares that his employers' accusations are without foundation.

NUMBER OF LIVES LOST MAY NEVER BE KNOWN

KINGFISHER, Okla., Sept. 20.—The number of lives lost Tuesday when a Rock Island passenger train went through a bridge over the Cimarron river is not yet revealed and probably never will be.

Workmen were busy today replacing the destroyed bridge. The number of engine, baggage and mail cars are still hidden under the waters of the river although the stream has fallen several feet.

STOLE HIS CLOTHES.
Anton Smith, an employee of the Western sugar refinery in San Francisco engaged a room at the Railroad House at Seventh and Bay streets last night, and left his telescope, basket, containing clothing in the place while he went out for a walk. When he returned the telescope basket had taken its leave. The theft was reported to the police.

THE MYSTERIOUS 'SCOTTY' HERE AND AWAY

DEATH VALLEY MINER SPENDS A DAY IN OAKLAND

Sidesteps the Lamelight and Then Jumps Out of Town.

Walter Scott, commonly known as Scotty the Death Valley miner is still living up to his reputation of The Mysterious.

Scott arrived in Oakland yesterday morning with his mother Mrs. Laughlin of Mexico. He registered his residence so illegibly that it was difficult to ascertain from what part of the country he now claims to hail.

There was a time when "Scotty's" presence in a city big or small would be known a few hours after his arrival. But he has now adopted a conservative existence and prefers seclusion to the limelight of publicity which he has enjoyed to such an extent in the past.

This was illustrated when a TRIBUNE representative called at the Metropole this noon to inquire for Scotty and learned that the hero of the battle of Wingate Pass had disappeared at an early hour this morning with his mother after paying his bill.

One of the morning papers claimed to have had a telegram from Scotty dated at Barstow yesterday stating that Scotty was willing to fight Jack Horan against Philadelphia Jack O'Brien for a purse of $25,000.

Evidently the offer sprang from the fertile imagination of the sporting editor for Scotty was hundreds of miles distant from Barstow from which place the telegram is alleged to have been sent.

TROUBLE OVER VALLEJO PIPE LINE

VALLEJO, Sept. 20.—After three months wrangling in the board of city trustees Mayor Madigan announced today that he will begin action within a few days against the George H. Tay Company of San Francisco for the company having defaulted in its contract for supplying the municipal water system with $87,500 worth of light weight pipe for the new main line extension. The board of city trustees has refused to support the Mayor in his stand and he will endeavor to win without them. He has engaged Sam Shortridge and Walter Linnorth of San Francisco to represent the city in the suit. The board of trustees claim that while the pipe is light in weight it is good pipe and desire that it be laid as the present pipe line is old and leaky and may give out any day shutting off the city's supply of water and also that of Mare Island Navy Yard.

The whole matter looks very much like a battle between the east iron pipe trust and its only rival the Universal Pipe Company.

"DRUNK ROLLER" BOUND OVER TO HIGHER COURT

Dan Morgan 28 years of age was held over to the Superior Court on a charge of burglary this morning by Police Judge Smith. Morgan's bail was fixed at $2000.

The young man is accused of stealing a suit of clothes from Robert McKee who has a room at the Eureka hotel on September 18. When he appeared in the dock Tuesday morning having been arrested on a charge of vagrancy he was attired in McKee's clothes.

According to the testimony this morning Morgan took McKee to his room and later robbed him of his clothes leaving his own instead. McKee was drunk when in company of Morgan and the accused man says that he was taking him to his room. Morgan said that it was the first time he ever rolled a drunk, which meant taking him to his room and robbing him.

DOES NOT MEET FATHER, BOY BECOMES LOST

ALAMEDA, Sept. 20.—Robert McMullen a ten-year old boy was found wandering aimlessly about Park street at 10 o'clock last night. The boy was taken to the local police station where he stated to the officer in charge that he had come from San Jose to meet his father. He did not meet his parent, however, and did not know what to do. The child is now being detained at the local police station, waiting for some one to call for him.

LANDS ON HEAD IN FALL FROM LADDER

BERKELEY, Sept. 20.—While at work upon a house at 2311 Spaulding avenue Clarence O. Weller a painter fell through an open ladder from a height of fifteen feet and landed upon his head, sustaining severe injuries about the scalp and a probable concussion of the brain. Weller has since been in a comatose condition and Dr. Farrar who was summoned to attend him at the time of the accident fears that he may not recover. It is likely that brain fever will result.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 20.—Eight masked and heavily armed men held the people of White Cloud a village 45 miles north of here at bay early today while they rifled the Nevada county bank and attempted to rob the bank of B. Cannon & Sons. The eight men rode into town shortly after midnight and surrounded the two tanks. Guards were posted outside while other members of the gang entered the bank.

The interior of the Nevada county bank was completely wrecked by the two explosions and the robbers secured between $2000 and $4000. While the robbers were at work in the Cannon bank several citizens attracted to the scene by the explosions in the Nevada bank gathered.

The guards called out the men working in the bank before they could get the safe open and covering the citizens with guns rode out of town on horseback.

YOUNG LADIES DONE AN INJUSTICE

BERKELEY, Sept. 20.—The statement that was made regarding the trip of some students to Inverness and the alleged theft by some of them of articles belonging to the host proved to be greatly exaggerated. The newspaper article stated that Miss Ostrander, Miss Woodward and Miss Marquette Schoecraft were in the party. This is not true. They did not go to Inverness and were in no way connected with the trip. A party did go to Inverness but they went to their own place and had a pleasant trip. There was no riotous time as has been stated. The young ladies in question have been done a great injustice.

BUSY DAYS FOR PEOPLE OF POINT RICHMOND

Houses All Filled and More Homes
Are to Be Erected Shortly in the Town.

POINT RICHMOND Sept. 20.—The Socialist Party proposes to make an active campaign in this county. The convention was recently held at Crockett and a ticket was placed in the field. Charles H. Wunderlich of Point Richmond was nominated for County Auditor.

RICHMOND GROWING
Point Richmond is growing every day. The town is growing every day. The new people are coming to this community. This is what a local paper has to say in regard to the progress of the town.

Richmond is a growing, thrifty town and within five years will have a population of from fifteen to twenty five thousand people. Already we have something like seven thousand people here and the number is being increased very rapidly. One of the most serious drawbacks to the place at the present time is the lack of houses to rent. When a family comes to town it is not always convenient to buy or build a new home at once but they require a temporary haven until the head of the household can look around a bit and get his bearings.

There are no dwellings to rent for any length of time nor any price. All the houses are rented to permanent occupants and the man that comes here now with his family must either live in a tent or take refuge in some hotel. The first is impractical and the last too expensive for the average working man's purse to stand any length of time. Let us get together as a community and see if some plan can be formulated to build some cottages.

GREAT POWER COMPANY
Point Richmond is getting some of the large things of the coast. A great power company is coming this way. This is what the Leader has to say about the matter.

As was announced the other day in the columns of the Leader Richmond is to be the home of another great industry which will equal if not excel in point of magnitude the Standard Oil refinery one of the greatest institutions of its class in the United States.

The industry referred to is the Great Western Power Company incorporation articles for which were filed with the County Clerk at Martinez Tuesday. The incorporators are Guy C. Earl of Oakland, W. H. Spaulding, Oakland, H. G. Young, D. A. Grove, W. Strickland and L. D. Dimm of this city, F. D. Madison of San Rafael and B. B. Carroll of San Francisco. The capital stock is divided into 200,000 shares.

The Great Western Power Company will engage in all kinds of business according to the declarations of the articles of incorporation but it is understood that its chief mission will be the manufacture of structural steel and motive machinery of all cases including electric motors, steam and gas engines, etc. The principal place of business and headquarters will be located in Richmond though a branch office will be maintained in San Francisco.

The local incorporators of the concern are simply figureheads as the company is financed by eastern capital and will be conducted and managed by eastern men.

The firm of Pillsbury, Madison & Sutro which is representing the Great Western Power Co. on this coast is keeping the affairs of its client exceedingly dark but the above information concerning the intentions of the new corporation is known for a certainty. It is not known, however, when the company will begin operations nor has the information been obtained as to the supposed location of the plant. It is thought however that the factory will be built some where in the vicinity of the Chinese Shrimp Camp on the line of Mr. Rheim's new electric road.

TOWEL, TEARS, TEMPER, BESSIE BRADY BUCKS

And She Wiped Her Pretty Face
on a Fancy Bureau Cloth.

Barred from her temporary home because she hid a towel claim ing that she was denied redress by the police and crying as if her heart would break Bessie Brady who said she was a cook for a number of the wealthiest families in San Francisco started to seek shelter at the Pleasanton house about 10 o'clock last night, when she suddenly decided to return to the dwelling at 1405 Seventeenth street to which she was denied entrance. She said she had been told by the sergeant of police to find the officer on duty at the Sixteenth street railroad station and state her story to him but the lateness of the hour caused her to give up these instructions.

Miss Brady said that the earthquake had shattered her nerves so that she was unable to work and had gone to Mill Valley to recuperate. A month ago she came to this city and rented a room from Mrs. G. Brandes who keeps a lodging house at 1405 Seventeenth street. She says she paid for a month's rent in advance, and was entitled to occupy the premises until next Monday.

According to her story when she awoke yesterday morning she discovered that the towels in her room had been replenished and she was forced to use a bureau cloth. Fearing that her landlady would forget to furnish her with another supply through forgetfulness or design she hid the one she had for future use. That caused her trouble.

Having passed the day viewing the city Miss Brady returned to her home footsore and weary at 6 p. m. She knocked on the front door for admittance and while she waited for Mrs. Brandes to appear she lightly hummed a tune. Suddenly the door flew open and the owner of the premises stood upon the threshold. In choice language she accused her caller of stealing a towel and of burning more gas than she could pay for. Now this upset the equanimity of the former cook for San Francisco's pets and she gave Mrs. Brandes a piece of her mind. Before she had finished the door was slammed in her face. Repeated knocking and hammering failed to disturb the woman inside and to add to the discomfort of the one on the outside Mrs. Brandes went into Miss Brady's room and lighting the gas commenced to read an evening paper.

That was too much and the cook ran to the nearest police box where she waited half an hour for a policeman but as usual, when the man in blue was wanted he is nowhere to be found. There was nothing left to do but to go to headquarters which she did but she claims that they told her to go to the 15th street depot at Sixteenth street and wait for an officer as the boxes were all out of order in that section. It was then that she sought the Pleasanton. The sequel of the story is yet to come.

SAYS RUSH IT THROUGH

The Building Commission Advocates Haste in Passing Ordinance

The building commission appointed by the City Council to consider the new building ordinance which was drawn up by the Board of Public Works met last night and discussed in a general way what should be and what should not be in the proposed measure. It was the consensus of opinion among those present that the ordinance should be rushed through as the Board of Works is constantly in need of law governing the new kind of buildings now being erected which are not provided for under the present ordinance.

Walter D. Fawcett, secretary of the Board of Works has compiled a list of the permits granted during the past five days which is as follows:
September 13—37 permits granted for new buildings and 14 for alterations.
September 14—37 permits for new buildings 20 for alterations.
September 15—26 permits for new buildings 7 for alterations.
September 16—36 permits for new buildings and 21 for alterations.
September 17—77 permits for new buildings and 32 for alterations. During this time $487 was collected for fees.

The commission is to hold several meetings and the proposed new building ordinance will be considered seriously.

LEAGUE TO HOLD A BIG MEETING

SAN FRANCISCO Sept. 20.—To night at Dolores Hall Sixteenth and Dolores streets the Independence League will formally open its campaign.

The bonfires will blaze and a big band will play. Of course the chief interest will center in the appearance and address of District Attorney William H. Leary, don San Francisco's apostle of reform and candidate for Governor. The people of San Francisco thoroughly well know how forceful a political orator is Leary and how convincingly he makes his arguments.

J. J. Dwyer will tell of the purposes of the new party and there will also be stirring addresses by C. W. Petty, financial secretary and manager of the Central Labor Council of Alameda county, C. C. Boynton of Alameda, the league nominee for Congress in the Third District, James F. Peck who will preside at the meeting and Albert M. Johnson who has the faculty of stirring an audience as few men in California can.

The union labor men of Alameda county are to send a large delegation to the meeting.

BERKELEY MASCOT IN BAD FAVOR

BERKELEY Sept. 20.—The pet bull terrier of the Psi Upsilon fraternity house is in disgrace. A few days ago the animal attacked and bit Miss Ruth McDonald the little daughter of Mr. Jasper McDonald who resides at Clay Court. McDonald complained to the police department and an officer who was sent to investigate was also bitten. Later McDonald swore out a complaint for the arrest of the owner of the dog, promised Marshal Vollmer that the animal should be killed. Now it appears that the bull pup has been sent away from Berkeley until the animosity that the townspeople have at present for the Psi Upsilon mascot dies away.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I. Sept. 20.—Congressman Robert R. Hitt of Illinois died at his summer home here today.

Heart failure due to old age was the cause of his death. Mrs. Hitt and her two sons, W. C. Hitt and R. H. Hitt, were at the bedside of the Congressman when he died.

Congressman Hitt came here last June and since that time he had been very ill, requiring most of the time the constant attention of nurses and physicians. His age was 72 years.

WASHINGTON Sept. 20.—Ill health continuing through two years, at least which for the most part unfitted him for his congressional duties, the session of the last Congress charged first by Representative Robert J. Dams of Pennsylvania up to the time of his tragic death last year and afterwards by Representative Cousins of Iowa, Landis of Indiana and Perkins of New York.

Mr. Hitt was one of the most spectacular figures in Congress, his friendships including men of all parties and because of his wide experience and ability he was always listened to with the greatest of attention when he dealt with matters pertaining to the foreign service.

When Congressman Hitt accompanied his wife arrived at Jenney Lodge their summer home here in June it was understood that the aged man was not in good health, his condition being attributed to ailments due to advanced years. For some time the patient showed improvement but a few weeks ago most serious symptoms were noted. Subsequent treatment seemed to have little beneficial effect, although the advice of a specialist constantly was sought.

There was no alarming sudden change and up to early today immediate death was not expected. A collapse due to heart weakness came during the morning hours with fatal results.

Arrangements will be made to remove the body to Illinois tomorrow.

JURY FAILS TO CONVICT COUNTESS

BERKELEY Sept. 20.—The guilt of Countess Fanny Rosenthal charged with stealing from the store of a local dry goods firm handkerchiefs to the value of two dollars is still undecided and likely so to remain for some time. Her second trial on the charge that was made against her by the dry goods proprietor ended last night in a disagreement of the jury which stood eight to four for a conviction. It is claimed by the prosecution that three of the jurors refused to consider the evidence against her and insisted that the Countess should be acquitted because of her past good reputation.

The jury was charged at 6 o'clock and it was almost midnight when Judge Edgar became convinced that an agreement would be impossible.

SELFISH MEN FAIL TO INVITE GIRLS

BERKELEY Sept. 20.—No longer will the senior women of the University forego the pleasure of the dance because the men of the class are reluctant to do their duty as escorts.

At a meeting of the women yesterday the senior class boldly said that if the men do not invite them to the senior assembly they will attend the dance alone. The services of a chaperon to escort them to the first senior assembly they disdain and they announce that if the men are tight we will go to the dance anyway.

The action of the men in not inviting the co-eds to the dances that were given by the senior class last year is responsible for the attitude of the women of the present class.

STUDENT EDITOR CALLS ASSOCIATES THIEVES

BERKELEY Sept. 20.—Those students of the university who are of red tape, take books from the university library without as much as asking leave and return the volumes at their convenience or not at all, are in no uncertain language called thieves by the editor of the student daily. Although the practice seems to be pretty general among the students the student editor declares that if any one of the book lifters were caught redhanded there would be room for him on the university campus.

The editorial follows:
The university library is for the use of the whole student body under certain regulations not for a few chosen favorites. We have been informed that there are students in the university who make it a regular business of doing nothing but stealing books from the library. It is not their intention to keep the books. They take books out without going through the proper methods with no idea of keeping the books permanently but nevertheless it is stealing. If they were caught their days in the university would be numbered and so we give this warning out to save some well meaning student from disastrous results.

Upon the plea that she would leave Oakland and go to Vallejo without delay and never show her face in this city again Annie King who has been arrested many times before on drunkenness charges was allowed to go this morning by Police Judge Smith. Annie held up her right hand and swore that she would leave the city and be glad to get out of it.

SHAD FAST BECOMING EXTINCT, SAYS EXPERT

WASHINGTON Sept. 20.—That there is grave danger that the shad will become extinct is pointed out by United States Commissioner of Fisheries George W. Bowers. Explaining how the tooth some fish may follow the way of the blair and the wild pike he says in his annual report:
Under the conditions which have been becoming more and more pronounced the run of fish for spawning purposes has been practically wiped out in many of the most important streams and unless the State promptly takes some action by which a fair percentage of the shad may reach their spawning grounds the future for this fish is gloomy.

Bryan Is Candid at Least.

Some of Mr. Bryan's admirers would do well to emulate his candor in stating their political beliefs. For instance, not a few of them have found fault with him for stating his views in regard to the government ownership of railroads, saying with blunt frankness that he should have held his opinion on this important question in abeyance till the close of the next Presidential campaign.

The inherent dishonesty of the proposition is self-evident, and it is a good thing for the country that Bryan's standard of political honor is higher than that of his followers who would have him practice deceit on his countrymen. As the railroad question is an overshadowing one in many respects it was the right of the public to know precisely what views were held in regard to it by the leader of one of the great political parties and an avowed candidate for the Presidency. Bryan displayed the courage and candor which are among his most captivating qualities by telling the people the moment he arrived from Europe just where he stands on a question so vital as government ownership of railways.

Men who disagree with his views admire his frankness. The people know now where to draw the line between Roosevelt and Bryan. The President believes in government control of railroads and strict regulation of their operations, but he is stoutly opposed to the government owning and operating the roads. He believes the evils of government ownership would be far greater than the evils of private ownership at the worst. But he has plainly said that if the railroads cannot be controlled and regulated the alternative will be government ownership.

Bryan believes in control and regulation for the present but in government ownership as the ultimate solution of the railroad problem. Government ownership is a purely tentative question at this time with him, hence he does no more than give his adherence to a theory while disavowing any intention of applying it in the immediate future.

He differs with President Roosevelt as to the details of government ownership as sharply as he does as to the wisdom of putting it in practice. If the government should own and operate the railroads Roosevelt holds that it should own and operate them all. Bryan, following the ignis fatuus of Democratic training, believes the National government should own the trunk lines and the States the feeding systems which would be most unbusinesslike and create endless confusion that would entail incalculable economic loss.

Where Hotels Are Needed.

It seems to be generally understood that the next Republican convention will be held in Los Angeles. The lack of adequate hotel accommodations in the other cities of the State is so painful that the superiority of Los Angeles in this respect is thrown into more marked relief. While the people of Santa Cruz did everything in their power to make it pleasant for the delegates to the late Republican convention their kindness and hospitality could not supply the deficiency in hotel accommodations. A great deal of discomfort and inconvenience were unavoidable under the circumstances. Even the climatic and scenic charms for which Santa Cruz is famous failed to reconcile the delegates to the difficulty of getting a place to eat and sleep. Although the attendance at the Democratic State convention was smaller the situation at Sacramento was hardly better than it was for the Republicans at Santa Cruz. All the hotels were full to overflowing and the delegates and others attending the convention were compelled to tramp around the city after nightfall in search of lodgings. Third rate lodging houses and private residences had to be called into requisition and even then the visitors were in many cases compelled to sleep two in a bed. Stockton is no better off than Sacramento, while Oakland is a good deal worse off than either. Good hotels are sadly needed in all the cities of Central and Northern California and in Oakland the need has become a crying necessity. We cannot invite any kind of a convention to come here because we have no hotels for the accommodation of guests and no large hall for conventions to assemble in. Our deficiency in this respect should be remedied at an early date for if we only had fine hotels and a large auditorium Oakland would be an ideal convention city. It is to be hoped that the various hotel projects now under consideration will materialize at an early date so that we can be in a position to invite the political conventions of 1910 to meet here.

It now looks as if Boss Murphy were preparing to throw Hearst down, after using the editor's popularity to retain control of the Tammany organization. The Hearst forces helped him to beat the McClellan faction but it appears as if Murphy were disinclined to acknowledge the service although Murphy would have been down and out but for the timely aid of the Hearst lieutenants.

Roger Sullivan calls Bryan a liar and insinuates that he is a boodler. The country has watched with some amusement the controversy between Bryan and Sullivan, and was not displeased to see Bryan get more than he bargained for but Sullivan cannot make the public believe Bryan is either a liar or a crook. Bryan makes many mistakes and advocates some very visionary theories but he is an honest and sincere man. It is quite evident that Sullivan is neither, and is a good deal of a blackguard in the bargain.

Oakland's Medical College.

The Oakland College of Medicine and Surgery is taking rank among the leading medical schools of the State. Although the youngest educational institution in Oakland it has already given conclusive evidence of the high standard it has set for itself. At the recent examination held by the State Board of Medical Examiners three of the seventy-two who made application for licenses were graduates of the Oakland College of Medicine and Surgery, namely Drs. Arnold, Lohse and Abrams. Three averaged higher in the examination than any three from any other college, capturing the third, fifth and tenth places respectively in the rating. No better proof could be given of the thorough training imparted at the Oakland medical college which was founded five years ago by Drs. D. D. Crowley, now chief surgeon of the National Guard, Dr. Frank Adams, president of the Municipal Board of Health, Dr. Thomas, Dr. Ewer, health officer and several other local physicians, all of whom are lecturers and demonstrators in the institution which seems destined to take high rank among the medical colleges of the Pacific Coast.

A good many people wonder what the signs reading "Cars Stop Here" were put up for. After one stands at one of these signs and sees cars after cars go by without stopping he is inclined to think the Traction managers are having fun with it.

What Texas Sold the Government.

A great majority of Americans are not aware that the United States government gained a huge slice of Texas territory at the close of the Mexican war. The Republic of Texas claimed sovereignty over a territory additional to the present limits of the State, including 65,000 square miles of New Mexico, 19,000 square miles of Colorado, 7,700 square miles of Kansas, 10,600 square miles of Wyoming and 5,600 square miles of Oklahoma. An examination of one of the Louisiana Purchase maps issued by the government prior to the St. Louis Exposition and will show how far Texas territory extended to the north. The title of Texas to this additional area of 101,360 square miles was relinquished to the United States in 1850, after the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo had been concluded, by the terms of which the United States came into possession of all Mexican territory east and west of the Rocky Mountains from the southern limits of Oregon to the Gulf of California. All territory on the east of the Rocky Mountains at that time not covered by the Louisiana purchase of 1803 was claimed by Texas. For this magnificent domain, embracing some of the richest mining territory in Colorado and the cities of Denver and Pueblo the United States government paid Texas $10,000,000, which was used in paying off the debt created during the years the Lone Star State was an independent republic. In political consequence, therefore, the annexation of Texas was hardly second in importance to the purchase of the Louisiana territory from France.

CHIPS FROM OTHER BLOCKS

We still hear some of the old time Californians exclaiming about the railroad and attempting to argue that it ruins any country that it penetrates. Now the Sierra railroad is a short branch that extends from Oakdale in Stanislaus, up into Tuolumne with another branch of a few miles into Calaveras. The road has recently published a statement of its earnings that does not show a badly ruined country by the operation of the road. For July, 1905, the total earnings of the road were $29,131.99, for the same month of 1906 they were $38,440.68. In August 1905, the earnings were $32,275.12, and for August, 1906 they were $41,861.35. This shows a total increase for the two months of $19,894.92. The increase of business has exceeded the increase in equipment, and the road has been hampered by lack of facilities for handling freight, but despite that the showing is a good one, and speaks of constant growth.—Calaveras Prospect

NIGRO'S ESTATE IS PRACTICALLY SETTLED

SAN FRANCISCO Sept. 20.—At last the contest for the property left by Fabrisio Nigro is practically settled. The Supreme Court yesterday dismissed the motion on the part of his nephews and nieces for an appeal on the ground that there is a widow living.

Nigro owned the old Poodle Dog Restaurant and some other San Francisco property. He died intestate and a legal battle was begun for his property. At the time of his death he had neither father, mother, sister nor brother.

The nephews and nieces believed they had a legal right to a portion of the property and in the contest for it they appealed from the decree providing for the partial distribution of the property. The motion to dismiss the appeal was based upon the ground that the appellants having no interest in the estate were not entitled to appeal. The Supreme Court endorsed this opinion.

The case was commenced in March and was appealed to the Supreme Court from Alameda county.

He was allowed his liberty today says the Oregonian, in order to secure that sum though he is in custody of Sheriff White of Columbia county. The Bainier bank was robbed according to the story told by Van Aucher by two bandits, who bound him with ropes. Van Aucher declared he required him two hours to loosen his bonds, so that he could give the alarm.

None of the members of the club has expressed his intention of deserting his brother glee singers. Tryouts for the club will be held next Wednesday evening. A concert out that will depend for its extent on the financial resources of the club will be held as usual.

BLAZE AT THE OWL DRUG STORE

Good Work by Patent Fire Extinguisher. Yesterday afternoon fire broke out in the laboratory of the Owl drug store on Thirteenth street and threatened to spread rapidly. Indeed but for the presence of mind of one of the workmen and the effectiveness of a Minimax fire extinguisher much damage would have been done. The fire started among inflammable chemicals and was blazing furiously when the workman grasped a Minimax and by directing its contents on the fire had it completely put out in about thirty seconds. This is the fifth fire these reliable and handy extinguishers have put out within the last month and their use is being rapidly increased.

U. C. SOPH SUSPENDED

Ousted From College for Participating in the Recent Disturbance

BERKELEY Sept. 20.—Senior control has had its first test at the University of California. B. Moses a member of the sophomore class participated in the recent disturbances engendered by the traditional rivalry of the freshmen and sophomores. He has been suspended from the University on the recommendation of the undergraduate student affairs committee. Moses is making an effort to have the faculty student affairs committee reconsider his case and hold a session with that committee all yesterday afternoon. Unless the decision of the University authorities is reversed Moses will not be able to re-enter his classes this term. It is rumored that a number of other men of the sophomore class have been placed in a bad light both before the faculty and the undergraduate student affairs committees and are apt to find at any moment that there is no room for them in college this term.

The dog was known as the Psi Upsilon mascot and its attacks upon pedestrians have frequently been the cause of complaint. Yesterday Miss McDonald had occasion to pass the fraternity house at 2501 Ridge Road and the dog ran out tore her clothing and lacerated her before it could be driven off. Policeman McCabe was sent to the house on complaint of the girls father. He was informed that the dog was dead.

Several Concerts Are to Be Given by the Musicians, and Also Trips Will Be Taken to Nearby Towns.

BERKELEY Sept. 20.—The University of California Band will make its initial appearance of the term at the University meeting tomorrow morning. The Cadet Band which is one of the largest amateur bands in the State has won an enviable reputation for itself within the past year or so. When the new commandant of the cadets Captain John T. Nance arrived at Berkeley last year he had a vast amount of criticism to pass on the appearance of the University cadets in general but he spared the band. Several concerts are to be given by the University band on the campus this year and concert trips are to be made to near by towns. The band will also play at the Boat Club show which is to be held in the Greek Theater next Tuesday evening. The band gave a moonlight concert in the Greek Theater last spring that was attended by about six thousand people and a second moonlight concert that had to be postponed on account of the earthquake was planned. THIS FOOTBALL IS SIX FEET

Great Bit of Leather for the Students to Buck About the Campus

BERKELEY Sept. 20.—A safety valve has been provided for the exuberant spirits of the first and second year students of the State University through the efforts of Walter Christie. The rush is dead but an excellent substitute is to take its place. The plan is to hold annually a football contest on an enormous scale between the freshmen and sophomore classes. The football that will be in use is to be six feet in diameter and one hundred men from each class will participate. The struggle will take place at the end of the football season. A committee consisting of President Wheeler Colonel Edwards Ollie Snelidger Professor Magee and Trainer Christie has arranged to meet at once to draw up rules for the event.

Official timekeepers and referees will keep the men from slugging and while the struggle will give a fair chance to each class there can be no dirty work. Such a contest is not a new idea but it is the first time that it has been proposed on this campus. Many of the Eastern universities have similar battles and Stanford tried such a scheme this year meeting with great success.

VISIT TO CIRCUS FOLLOWED BY DEATH

LIVERMORE Sept. 20.—Alfred Kottinger a well known farmer of the Vallecito district passed away rather suddenly and unexpectedly Tuesday afternoon at his home nine miles southwest of town. He had been convalescing from an attack of pneumonia contracted while attending the circus at San Jose one night last week, but was suddenly stricken in bed yesterday afternoon and died before a physician could arrive from this place. Deceased was a native of this valley aged about forty years and leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss. The funeral will take place Thursday. An inquest will be held.

HUSBAND, 78, SAYS WIFE PROMISED HIM SUPPORT

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20.—She promised to support me when she asked me to marry her said Victor Aulis 78 years old when charged before Judge Bettler yesterday with deserting and refusing to support the wife he married two months ago. He desecrated me as to the property he owned said the woman who appeared only slightly younger than her husband but refused to tell City Solicitor Bartlett exactly how old she was. The judge held that her age was not an essential factor in the case and remarking sympathetically that poor girls were often thus deceived by men, adjourned the further hearing.

WARRANTS OUT FOR TWO BUILDERS

ALAMEDA Sept. 20.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of two well known local contractors Robert J. Hot and Charles Jenkins. The men failed to put rights on obstructions placed in front of buildings they are erecting.

JUNIOR CLASS NEW OFFICERS

Another Meeting Will be Held on Wednesday to Finish the Work.

BERKELEY Sept. 20.—The junior class of the University of California met yesterday to install its new officers. No further business was done as the members of the class desired to attend the interclass football game. There will be another meeting next Wednesday afternoon, when the question will come up of an increase in the Blue and Gold treasury. It is probable that a levy of $250 to be paid on delivery of the books will be asked, as it is considered that at least $1000 will be required to issue the annual in proper form.

NO QUORUM, BOARD HOLDS NO MEETING

ALAMEDA Sept. 20.—The board of education failed to meet Tuesday evening because of lack of a quorum. P. Steffens, who for the past six years has been a janitor in the local schools, has resigned his position. He is to go north. The vacancy will be filled at the next session of the trustees.

U. C. EXTENSION WORK PLANNED

Assignments are Made for the Three Districts This Year

BERKELEY Sept. 20.—Plans for the University extension work this year have been drawn up by Professor Morris Stephens head of the extension department, and several changes have been made in the schedule. The work will be divided in three areas, as follows. The bay district, with San Francisco as a center the Southern California district, with Los Angeles as a center and the valley region, including Bakersfield and Red Bluff.

G. M. Burden who lectured on "Italian Art" in Southern California last year has gone East to take the position of assistant curator of fine arts in the Boston Museum. His place will be taken by F. M. Clays who will lecture on English dramatic literature and Russian fiction.

WANT CONSUMPTIVE PRINCIPAL TO LEAVE

MAHANOCITY Pa., Sept. 20.—Asserting that Professor Norman Herbert principal of the Hazle Township High school, is a victim of pulmonary tuberculosis parents of pupils attending the school threaten they will not permit their children to attend the session if the board of education does not relieve him of his position. Unless the principal resigns the State health authorities will be asked to investigate his case.

OIL ON TRACK; CARS CRASH

Fluid Used to Lay the Dust in Cause of Unavoidable Accident

ALAMEDA, Sept. 20.—There was a bad wreck, due to oil placed on the tracks of the Oakland Traction Company at High street on this city yesterday. Car 164 crashed into car 173 which was standing at the siding on Santa Clara avenue at High street. The motorman of the car was unable to control his car owing to the oil which had been spread across the tracks a few minutes before the crash. Conductor Sampson of car 164 was badly cut by flying glass. When the crash came he was standing on the back platform and glass was thrown all about him. His nose was cut in four places and his forehead was a mass of lacerations. The accident was an unavoidable one and the entirely to the oil which had been placed on the tracks. The heavy oil car had allowed the fluid to flow over the streets and the track were flooded. At a result the brakes failed to hold the car at critical time and the accident resulted.

Hidden Dangers

NATURE GIVES TIMELY WARNINGS THAT NO OAKLAND CITIZEN CAN AFFORD TO IGNORE

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. The will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy urine full of sediment and smelling of pus.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains dull and heavy or sharp and acute tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the coming of dropsy diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's a good proof. James Deal of 630 Fifth street, Oakland Cal. says: "I used two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me more good than anything else I ever used. I was troubled with backache for about three years. Some times the attacks would last two or three days. The kidney secretions troubled me somewhat and I had to get up several times every night. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills I have not had any backache and the trouble with the kidney secretions has been corrected. You can use my name if it will do any good to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
